Win a turkey hunt with Commissioner Charles Bronson

(Gainesville, Fla.) – Florida Farm Bureau’s Young Farmer and Rancher Leadership program is hosting a limited donation drawing for a weekend turkey hunt with Commissioner of Agriculture Charles H. Bronson. Only 100 tickets will be sold at $50 per ticket. The winner receives a two-person, guided Osceola turkey hunt at Evans Farm in North Florida.

“We hope the avid turkey hunters will gobble up this opportunity to hunt with Commissioner Bronson,” said Florida Farm Bureau President John L. Hoblick.

The drawing will be held on Feb. 1, 2010. Tickets are available by contacting Shaun Fulford at 352-378-8100, ext. 1030 or by email, Shaun.Fulford@ffbf.org

“There will be a one gobbler limit per person,” Hoblick said. “A high degree of success can be anticipated if an individual can sit still and shoot straight.”

The hunt is tentatively scheduled for the weekend of March 27, based on the Commissioner’s schedule. Hunters will arrive on Friday afternoon and depart after the Sunday morning hunt. The hunt will include full accommodations and guide service.

Florida Farm Bureau’s Young Farmer & Rancher Leadership program helps agriculturists between the ages of 18 and 35 develop organizational leadership skills.

The Florida Farm Bureau Federation is the state’s largest general-interest agricultural association with about 140,000 member-families statewide. Headquartered in Gainesville, the Federation is an independent, nonprofit agricultural organization.
